Meeting Minutes

Wednesday 30th May 2009

Apologies: Catherine Connor.

Most Officers reported "All is Well."

Constable announced retirement, any interest via email, proposal going to Kingdom officer soon. One application received.

New deputy Seneschal, Honore de Corbeau aka Georgia Winter.

Lists Officer requests people ensure that she is notified for combat events.

Received a request for comment on new shire at Goulburn. In principle acceptance, Seneschal to investigate post codes.

Discussed possibility of an upcoming equestrian event was raised, garbed event with a commercial horse rides company. Advised of progress of hall contract with BOD. BOD member report discussed how authorisations must be done at events, how the definition of events and activities is still coming and proposed law changes.

Quotes received for Haig park hall tables, vote passed to purchase such. Vote proposed for Haig park hall sign costing, counter proposed commercial quotes request accepted. Quote will be obtained by Seneschal.

There was a discussion of the 'monthly bash' format, and it was proposed that each of these Sunday events could be usurped by autocrats wishing to hold their own events.

Baron requested proposal for Midwinter Next year – Honore volunteered.

Seneschal advised meeting re calendar setup after main meeting to discuss informal date arrangement. Calendar meeting results will outlined in the Griffintayle 'proposed event' tables. Next royal visit discussed.

Seneschal discussed survey and data collection. Informal group formed to discuss data gathering, data security and survey construction.

Post meeting Hall Contract issues: Contract not signed on two points: Current legal name of group and indemnity clause. Name query going to the board, indemnity query going to the Scout Club.

From the Seneschal's pen.

This month I took over this office from a very relieved Owain. Certain things are in fine shape. My officers all reported on time, and I was able to put my quarterly report in 15 days before the deadline. Heroic! Things are a little more dire with autocrats, as I inherited the office with no settled events, only proposed ones. I've already taken action on that front, and we have a fairly full calendar of proposed events I'd like to see locked in soon. It's never too soon to lock in an event – talk to me if you have an event you want to see happen under your stewardship! My next big action will be the upcoming survey – I went to gather information, and while I know my 65 members, I want to reach everyone else as well and know who I serve, what they want to enjoy from their SCA experience, and what they are willing to do for Politarchopolis.

Your Chronicler's Musings...

Hello and welcome to my first issue of Griffintayle! This should give you a heads up on how it'll look as a basic template.

After this you should consider yourselves warned, send me no content and I'll fill in the two A4 pages or so with my own personal interests which is an eclectic mix of Norse clothing, ecclesiastical embroidering, late period Italian bodices and board games!

To the Officers of our fair Barony—I have included what details I have and for some of you that is not even an email address. If you are happy for me to add this in please tell me.

Yours, Zanobia

Endnote

Griffintayle is published by and for the Barony of Politarchopolis. It is not a corporate publication of the Society for Creative Anachronism and does not delineate SCA policy.

"Griffintayle" is published monthly, by the first of the month. "Griffintayle Newsflash" editions are published electronically as required. All submissions must be received by the Chronicler by the last Monday of the month for general and event notices. Submissions are very welcome, otherwise you know Zanobia is just going to make this the official business and then a big section about how awesome norse garb and embroidery somebody else writes me something!

Griffintayle is published on paper and electronically. SCA policy dictates that electronic publications do not include non electronic contact details unless expressly released. The following details are released to help with bookings, subscriptions and official business:
