Seneschals Note

There are times when you are on the top of your game, and everything flows as you wish. And there are times when something goes awry, and you see who it is that can support you when you need help.

Thanks to everyone who has offered help and support while I have been down with the flu.

On another note: Griffintayle needs support—if everyone could write an article on their household/s that would make an interesting read.

Meeting Minutes

Wednesday, 26th August 2009.

Event Report—Poisoner's Feast (Georgia). The report has been handed to B&B and Seneschal, receipts are going to the Reeve and the banking is done. The event went well, some disappointment with people who booked not coming but this will be followed up.

Event Update - Royal Event in October. Corroborree Park books, costing will be down soon and full details will then be released.

Constable Report (Andrew). No incidents or problems to report. Warrant is still pending, Bart will help follow up. Paperwork for tavern feast has been provided, present to Poisoner's, St Vitas is organising their own constab.

*Proposed Valhalla War Cancelled (Ralf)—*a new proposal for a casual war replacement to be put forward for Nov 20/21/22, to be held at Kaloola Farm. This will be confirmed very shortly.

Event Report—Sleepy Ermine Tourney and Tavern (Chris)— paperwork completed (Reeve has receipts).

Event update—Guild Event (Leonie) - awaiting confirmation from hall about receiving booking cheque. Bookings are being taken (see event notice).

No board news reported.

*Baron's report (Simon) —*St Vitas flyers are here. Announcement about 24/25 Oct metals weapons "Jousting Weekend" in Hall. They have approached us about a) running a demo, b) running a feast for the metal weapons people (not general public) but for profit. Main consensus is that we are not interested in the feast, but may be interested in doing a demo at this event in the future (will check it out first).

Seneschal (Bart) - is glad that the barony can run itself, as the effects of swine flu are bad! Reminder that officers reports are due. Also please start thinking about event for 2010 so that a calendar can be planned. General updates given to help seneschal catch up:

Archery attendance is up (23/8 saw 18 people, including newcomers).

A&S attendance is also up (helped by arrow making class and embroidery project).

Fighter practices of both types well attended (weather permitting).

Baronial embroidery project is still going—volunteers are still welcome!

Attendance are dance and illumination is also good.

New A&S tables are getting a good workout.

*Proposed—*need to buy clamp on lamps to help with detailed work like embroidery and illumination (Kate L. and Leonie raised). Bart seconded and all in favour. Bart estimates will cost ~$170 to buy two lamps, daylight globs, a power board, extension cable and a storage box.

The following pictures are a collection from the Novelty Archery Shoot—Thanks Sigmund.

Geek Wanted: Deputy Hierophant

Hi folks - I just realised the feast on the weekend never made it onto the website calendar because I've been so busy with mundane stuff that I didn't even know what day it was. Apologies to Sigmund and everyone involved! So to prevent this happening again, I'm looking for a deputy. Required skills:

- Ability to operate a computer and a web browser without fear or fatalities.
- Understanding of the basics of FTP, XML and HTML.
- Ready access to email.
- A couple of hours free each week to check things and do a bit of copy-editing here and there.
- Willingness to have an email address placed in plain view on the site (it's quicker and easier than using the contact form, and works even if the site goes down).

If you match those criteria, you're ready to go as Deputy Hierophant.

Long term (three to six months) I plan to migrate the site to a > content management system called Drupal, then retire. The new site will be easier to operate, and will no longer require all those acronyms. If you can post to a blog or Facebook without burning your fingers, you're overqualified.

Contact me on 0407-468-244 or bat@flurf.net if you're interested.

Bookings to Ragnhildr (Helen Brimsmead):
the_brinsmeads@netspeed.com.au

Worshipful Company of Broiderers

This guild of Lochac focuses on the study and practice of pre-1600 embroidery, mainly from Europe. While the guild does have a structure, anyone who has an interest in embroidery can join.

Recently Mistress Rowan updated the guild's website, putting up many more pictures of the wonderful work done by individual members, but also of the fantastic Guild projects, like the Guild banner and new Pelican investiture cloak.

Have a look at the new site at <http://broiderers.sca.org.au>

Also if you look up the project page you will see information on the making of LOG pouches (for recipients of the Lochac Order of Grace) and Mouse Guard Pouches (a children's award). These include details notes on how to make one of these, which is a good way to try out a new technique and help out the Kingdom.

Your Chronicler's Musings...

Thank you to those who have supplied pictures, corrections and information for this little newsletter. I do appreciate it.

And just for note, if you would like a print copy, or know someone who does, I'm happy to do so if you can provide self addressed stamped envelopes. Work appears to be happy to allow me to print a few colour copies, so as long as there isn't a great rush on print subscriptions that might be a way to go.

You can also ask for me to bring an extra print copy to A&S for you, but that relies on me going to A&S, which is not a guarantee.

Yours, Zanobia
