Autocrats & Future Events

Hi Team,

As discussed at Council meetings, I strongly encourage autocrats to plan well in advance. Some lovely people are doing so to such an extent that I would like to advise of a changing of procedure via this list as well. There will be no planning day - events will be assessed at a period put aside each council meeting.

Autocrats need to follow these steps.

- a) PROPOSAL: Please advise of your intention to run an event with a rough outline to the Seneschal so it can be integrated into the proposed event calendar.
- b) CALENDAR: The current calendar will be consulted.
- c) ASSESSMENT: An assessment will be given by the Seneschal (after appropriate consultations)
- d) PROCEED TO PLAN: A decision to continue or not will be made.
- e) PLAN: The autocrat will be asked to create a fully costed plan to be signed off and advertised.
- f) DECISION: Event is authorised or not
- f) EVENT: The event will be run.

These steps can be done in ten minutes and a few phone calls in an emergency, but we like months or a year of notice so people can plan and venues can be booked well in advance.

Notification: Some 2010 events are already proposed. One 2010 autocrat has been advised to proceed to plan for a midyear event next council meeting.

Notification: A Valentines autocrats will has not yet come forward. Requests to run should be made by next council meeting to be assessed then, or it will be run by the Seneschal.

Notification: There has been a proposal to run a war event late November 2010. In order to facilitate a needed long term booking, any party wishing to run this war should also proposal ready to present at next council meeting so fair assessment can be made.

Notifications: The Baronial Knight Marshal

standing down. If you are interested in the position, or have any queries, please contact myself: Ysambart Courtin via the email below. I am gathering the proposals at the request of the retiring officer due to mundane work commitments getting in the way of the office and running the process.

Notification: There is a great need for a Polit Working Bee. This would likely to be at the hall on either a Wednesday or a Sunday. This would be to sort the objects the Barony owns, and put them to some order. The Barony does not have a volunteer for Quartermaster. The Quartermaster is an officer who looks after the objects the Barony owns. Currently this job is done by the Baron and Baroness, the relevant autocrats and ad-hoc available volunteers. With this lack, a working bee will be needed to make many hands make light work. This will happen soonish - watch your Griffintayle. Volunteers for, or enquiries about Quartermaster are appreciated.

Request: Please ensure these message gets disseminated to people who may not be on this email list.

Thanks!

Ysambart Courtin; Politarchopolis Seneschal

Rowany Festival

Next price rise is at the end of February, adult member cost is currently $90, while non-members are $95. Full details available online: <http://rowany.sca.org.au/festival/>

Crossroads presents the 100 Hour War, from 2 - 5 April 2010 (Yes, Easter) [1] on the Crossroads property, Sheldricks Lane, Yass.

The 100 Hour War is a non-SCA semi-catered medieval camping event, open to both SCA and metal weapons groups to come together and share with each other. There will be wars - both rattan and metal weapons (assuming there are enough combatants), Arts and Sciences classes, archery, fencing - everything you'd want during an Easter medieval event, plus the evening meal thrown in (soup kitchen three nights and Medieval feast one night, all catered by Tosti, late of Politarchopolis, now in Torlyon).

The booking form can be found at <http://www.crossroads.org.au/documents/100hours/bookingform.pdf>

Prices: [Co-op member/ Non-member/ Child Day rate (inc meal)]

Until 31 Jan 2010 $135/ $140/ $60/ $35.

Until 18 Mar 2010 $160/ $165/ $75/ $40.

At the Door $200/ $210/ $95/ $55.

[1] staying before and after can be arranged I'm sure - I just haven't checked with the board.

The Christmas Novelty Shoot.

Freddie was on the 'phone early calling his mates to the Field of Arrows at Tuggeranong - Freddie the Fly that is. But thousands of flies and thirty degree temperatures did not deter ten or so archers from enjoying the last novelty shoot of this year.

As befitting the season, a Christmas theme was used and included targets such as candy canes, elfish hats, a ring of bells, the Five Golden Rings contraption, a music sheet showing the notes of the Wenceslas Carol depicted in medieval square notes, and standing targets of a partridge in a pear tree and the "Christmas lunch boar." A surprise package contained a number of inflated balloons which burst when pierced by arrows. Probably the most difficult targets to hit were the candy canes, literally bamboo stakes painted in a barber's shop livery of red and white. Target width was about one centimetre and at five metres, tested the archers to the max. Nevertheless, several canes were pierced.

As with most novelty shoots, equipment suffered - broken arrow shafts, shredded fletching and an occasional lost arrow. But, hey, what price good fun?

The shoot was devised by Captain of Archers Ulric of Ambledune (Ian Crawford) who was ably assisted in making the targets by Danni and Holly. David made the candy canes.

After a donated lunch of barbecued sausage sandwiches, the shoot ended about 1 pm after which members retired to Haig Park to continue with Baronial Day activities.

Your Chronicler's Musings...

Hello and welcome to 2010!

This first issue is just to make some quick reminders about activities coming up (please look for Valentines! See page 3).

Please also note that A&S and Baronial meetings start up again this month (last Wednesday of January). I know that Tuesday night training is happening, so it seems like we're all enthusiastic about the new year!

Festival is getting closer and has some competition at Crossroads (please see event information on pages 3 & 4).

And once again thanks to Will for a great story and photos to match!

Yours, Zanobia
