This is Griffintayle, a publication of the Shire of Politarchopolis in the Society for Creative Anachronism (Inc in South Australia and USA). Griffintayle is available from 1/2 Lazarus Cres, Queanbeyan, 2620. Griffintayle copy must be received by the third wednesday of the month before the month of issue. If needed items may be faxed to the chronicler. Please ring the chronicler on (06) 216 4636 to arrange the fax details during business hours only. Griffintayle is not a corporate publication of the Society for Creative Anachronism and does not delineate official SCA policies. Phone messages from the past: Anne has a very, very, very sore throat and wants the name of a good chirurgen.

The Shire meeting

- Place: John Dedman Building ANU
 Present: Megan, Katherine, Norman, Jocelyn, Rhys, Ian, Chris, Eric, Simon, Beth, Russ, Jacinta, John, Sharen.
 Time: 7.37pm 3/2/93
- Seneschal: Remember the two special shire meetings this month. Also the Scarlet womans and the newcomer feasts. There was an Email message from Hrolf concerning Counties which is interesting. The Regalia Committee has sent a plea for money for the regalia needed when we turn into a Kingdom. The Cancon feast was good. If you don't want Politarcopolis bidding for 12th night next year please contact the seneschal before the end of March.
- Reeve: About $500.00. A Lot is going out and nothing is going back in.
- Archery: Its happening. College arrows have been repaired by Beth. If you wish to use a fletching jig then contact the Yew. Town Archery Competition are:
 February: A new favour
 March: Non-alcoholic drink
 April: Best breakfast
 May: Specky gambeson
 Combat archery is starting at 4.00pm while the heat is here. Russ is resigning from Captain of Archers position. If anyone is interested in doing it please talk to Russ.
- Constable: Beth was constable at the Cancon Feast and did well.
- Chronicler: The new improved Griffintayle is here. If you have any changes or any information for Griffintayle please get it to me as soon as possible.
- Fencing: (Report in absentia) Rapier construction will happen during the Newcomers event. Official practise is at Sunday Archery.
- General Business:
- Chris: I will be the chronicler of the Riddle by March. Articles are welcomed.
- Beth: Writing article. Collegium will need sewing machines.
- Crossroads: The site photo album is here to view and normally resides at Cross Florey. We are aiming to have the best craft facilities for use by medievalists in Australia.
- Sharen: What is on at the Arts and Sciences Tuesdays? The next 3 are Spinning, How to run an event, and Brewing.

- Simon: Those who are interested in helping at the event at Cranleigh in May should contact Simon or Ian.

Meeting ends at 8.10pm.

Special Shire meeting

- Place: The Winter Palace
 Present: Megan, Doug, Norman, Rhys, Cerridywn, John, Karen, Elizabeth, Duncan, Angela, Ian, Di, Sandra, Libby, Helen, John, David, Louise, David, Katrina, Bruce, Joanna, Murray, Phil, Russ, Amanda, Penny, Jane, Michelle, Charles, Graeme, Hazel, Simon, Beth, Chris, Robin, about three others and about 10 children.
 Time: 2.30pm 14/2/93
- Seneschal: There is to be standard meeting rules for this meeting with no interjections. If there is a yes vote on the referendum we should try to have the petition for advancement ready for May Coronet. This is Lochac's biggest Shire and it is even bigger than most Baronies with 80+ paid up members.
- Chartered Town by David: A paper entitled 'What is a medieval town' has been distributed at this meeting. The titular head of a group may reward people with awards. The Idea of a chartered town is to elect a single mayor for a limited time rather than two people for an open ended time. The real difference between chartered Towns and Baronies is in their styles. Chartered towns will emphasis guilds and marketplaces more. Original Charters confirmed the prestige and rights of the town and were normally accompanied by large payments. Our charter should be presented with the appropriate presentations and bribes. This shire is known for doing things differently.
- Province by Helen: Provinces were developed for big shires in the USA in order to help differentiate between shires as there are so many groups in small areas. A Province has 25 or more paid members and has no titular head and therefore no awards may be granted. Small sub-groups within the Province are known as Ridings. The Ridings would report to the Province officers who report to the Principality or Kingdom officers.
- Barony by Megan: A Barony has 25 or more paid members and has a titular head and therefore awards may be granted. Small sub-groups within the Barony are known as Cantons. The Cantons would report to the Baronial officers who report to the Principality or Kingdom officers. Palentine Baronies have their heads chosen by right of arms; other baronies by arts competition. (These are rare.) The most common type of Baronies have their heads chosen by popular acclaim.
- Intermission: Short break for drinks etc.
- David speaking for Chartered town: There are several reasons for becoming a chartered town. It is a lot of fun. Politarcopolis is known for being different. For the research aspects which is one of the goals of the SCA. It will also be more fun for the crafts.

Rhys speaking for Barony & against town: Using the town as a good reason to have an annual fair. Why not have an annual fair anyway as it should be independent of the process for changing the shire. Just being different is not really a good enough reason for doing it. On the 'it is impossible to chose a Baron and Baroness' excuse for not going to Baronial status. In the past in Politarcopolis there were three couples who set up a network to help one another when one set were chosen to be Baron and Baroness of Politarcopolis. However a SCA registry problem occurred and the shire became distracted from the situation. It doesn't have to be a bloodbath. Also once someone/s have been chosen for Baron and Baroness or even as Mayor/Mayoress they shouldn't be expected to attend everything that happens in the Shire.

Charles speaking for town or else barony but not for staying the same: The chartered town allows for someone who is doing badly to step out gracefully at the end of their term. Politarcopolis is dead over winter because of the cold. It would be good to hold an event then. Being different is OK if you have reasons. If you are replacing Barons and Baroness's on a regular baises you may as well be honest about it and call it an election. A Chartered town would suit our group.

Helen: Going for difference for its own sake is bad. Fixed terms allow for easier impeachment of egomaniacs. Barons and Baroness's are expected to turn up to most events. Are we adult enough to go to those who are being egomaniacs and tell them so? Do we really want to entrench politics into the place? Some of the things which we want to do may be limited by being a town with not enough pomp and ceremony.

Graeme speaking for the Barony: I was seneschal during the time we wanted to be known as Politarcopolis. We wasted lots of energy. Lets make a decision and go for it. Everyone should support whatever we go for. The election period could be a problem. Consider the term of the mayor/mayoress. You can limit the term on Barons and Baroness's. Talk to people and make up your own mind.

Robyn: A year is too short a period. You spend six months getting on your feet and then six months being undermined. Limiting the period does help prevent burnouts but it should be about two or three years.

Phillip: I don't think that we should limit the period in either direction so that good people can be kept.

Chris: If a Baron and Baroness term is fixed then it is the same as a town.

Elizabeth: The pomp and ceremony for replacing the Lord Mayor of London is very big. Almost as big as a coronation.

Hazel: I don't think that setting limits is good because good people should be allowed to stay on. The choice is between having the shire go for middle class or nobility.

Megan: A copy of the draft referendum is available to view and please make remarks on it. Talk to as many people as you can and try and think of all the possible advantages and disadvantages of the changes. It will be out in two weeks with returns due by Wednesday the 24 March. Remember to choose if you want a change and if so then what type of change. Once a decision has been made we must all work together for it.

3.40pm
Close.

Rowany Festival Competition

- Best fighter or Non-Fighter pennant.
- Best Banner (of own or household device).
- Best Entertainment at the Friday night feast.
- Most amusing/interesting Helm crest at the fighter auction.
- Best decorated non-period tent/marquee/pavilion.

At this years Rowany Festival there will be

The Fourth Annual Best Looking Unit Competition.

This year the prize is one dozen bottles of Strongbow cider.

The prize is for the best looking unit that forms up at the main Eric and then marches off to the field battle site with the two armies. A unit consists of at least three people with at least one person going to fight (either Heavy or Light Infantry) in the field battle. The non-fighters could include banner bearers, weapon carriers, musicians, etc. Just use your imagination. Have fun and may the best looking unit win.

Charles of the Park and John of the Hills wish to announce, for the third year in a row, that the will be baking again at the Rowany Festival. Fresh bread will be available every morning and Baroness Buns will be sold during the fighter auction. Cheese rolls will also be available during the Little Rock War.

The pre-order service is for those who would like to ensure that they will obtain loaves for each morning of the festival. As there will be only fifty loaves available for pre-orders we will fill the orders on a first come first serve basis. Please send payment with the order. Some loaves will be available each morning for sale to those who have not been able to place an order

Special orders will be considered so please contact us. (ie yeast free, raisin bread)

📖 OLD BOOKS. 📖

I have the following books available for perusal :-

(All these books are photocopies of microfilm of the original books. I have obtained the best possible copies.)

1. "The Ladies Cabinet enlarged and opened: containing Many Rare Secrets, and Rich Ornaments of several kinds, and different uses. Comprized under three general Heads, viz. 1. Preserving, Conserving, Candyng, Etc. 2. Physick and Chirurgery., 3. Cookery and Housewifery. Whereunto is added, Sundry Experiments, and choice Extractions of Waters, Oyls, Etc. Collected and practiced by the late Right Honorable and Learned Chymist, The Lord Ruthuen".

Author: Patrick Ruthven, Earl of Forth and Brentford (1573? - 1651). This edition published London 1654.

2 "The Closet of the eminently learned Sir Kenelme Digby, Kt. opened whereby is discovered several ways for making metheglin, sider, cherry-wine, Etc. together with excellent directions for cookery: as also for preserving, conserving, candyng, etc."

Author: Sir Kenelme Digby, Kt (1603-1665). This edition published London 1671 (Published by his son's consent).

3. The Accomplished Ladies Rich Closet of Rarities : Or, the Ingenious Gentlewoman and Servantmaids delightful Companion: containing many excellent things for the accomplishment of the female sex, after the excellent manner and method...to which is added a second part, containing directions for the guidance of a young gentlewoman as to her behaviour."

Author: John Shirley. Published London (4th Edition 1690, 5th Edition 1699). This book is an amalgam of both editions because of the difficulty in copying.

4. "The True Conduct of Persons of Quality (translated out of French)".

All persons attending THE ROWANY FESTIVAL

AS XXVII

(Thursday the 8th of April to Tuesday the 13th)

Let It Be Known that Lord Philip One-Eye

shall be making available a Hundred Horsepower Horseless Carriage
(Truck)

for the cartage of tents, supplies, &c to the Rowany Festival.

The Horseless Carriage will depart Politarchopolis for Rowany early on the Saturday before the Festival (April 3) and return the Saturday afterward (April 17). Should you desire to have material transported thence, you must deliver it, marked throughout with your mundane name and address, to the Winter Palace (32 Rosebery Street, Fisher) in the week before Friday the 2nd and retrieve it in the week after Sunday the 18th. Tents will be erected during the week preceding if assistance can be found at the site; at any rate, tents will be erected on Thursday afternoon for whomsoever shall request.

Participation will require a contribution of seventy pieces of gold, to cover the hiring of the Horseless Carriage, and to aid recovery of Lord Philip's expenses.

Participants are also sought for an expedition to the site during March for site preparation. Food will be prepared by Lady Monique de la Maison Rouge, once described (by an anonymous winged shrewlike mammal in the Society) as the best thing to happen to the culinary arts since dark-chocolate-coated licorice bullets.

For information, call Phil One Eye at the Winter Palace on ☎288 9693

PERIOD FENCING AT THE ROWANY FESTIVAL

The official launch of Lochac Rapier Combat will take place at the Rowany Festival.

Activities will include 2 days of Collegium, Authorisations, and Fencing, followed by the Inaugural Rowany Festival Rapier Game.

Briefly, the Rapier Game is a running series of rapier duels (or melees). Each fencer starts "The Game" with a number of lives (represented by ribbons). Each time he/she loses a duel a ribbon is yielded the victor. When you lose all your ribbons you're out of "The Game". The winner is the person with the most ribbons at the end of "The Game".

Easy you might think!!! BUT just to add a wild card (and a chance for us to fight everyone while running "The Game") there will be a City Watch to enforce the anti-duelling Edicts.

If the City Watch catch you duelling they will try to restore public order. They may fine you and let you go (or not!!). However you may choose not to go peacefully and defy the Watch (and fight them). Once again the victor claims a ribbon from the defeated.

Note : The City Watch represents the "Proper Authorities" and, of course, are innumerable. (We carry unlimited ribbons).

There will be a prize for the winner of the Rowany Festival Rapier Game.

More detailed information will be published in April Pegasus, or sent to you on request.
