REGULAR MEETINGS

Council Meetings: in room G007 of the Crisp Building at the ANU, on the first Wednesday of each month at 7:30pm. January council meeting has been cancelled - the next will be on February 5th.

FIGHTER TRAINING

Baronial heavy fighter practice:

Sunday mornings at the park beside the Mummery from 10am, except on weekends with fighting events - note the new venue!!

Wednesday evenings from 6:30pm at Descartes.

Metal-Morrist† practice: This is not an SCA event! Monday nights at the Armoury () from 7pm. Practice this popular variation on morris dancing using light metal wands in place of the commonplace sticks. Bells optional.

Archery practice: Southwell Park, Lyneham from 10am.

Town Archery second Sunday of each month at the same time and place, but it is a costumed event.

Combat Archery: first Sunday of the month and on the third Saturday at Southwell Park, Lyneham, both from 1pm.

ARTS AND SCIENCES

Heraldry: On the Tuesday before each month's Council Meeting, at the Mummery, or by appointment for consultations on name and device submissions, etc. Please ring the Herald beforehand so that he can bring his books along.

Dancing: On Sundays 1:30 - 3:30 pm at Macarthur Scout Hall, Coyne St, Fadden for $3 per adult.

Stitch & Bitch: Tuesday nights from 7:30pm at the Mummery. The rule is "No stitch, no bitch," or "No sewing? You're going!"

Southern Arts & Sciences: Dragon Portal, Gilmore.

Singing Group: will continue on Monday evenings at 7.30pm at the White House. Singers of all abilities are welcome. Come along to practice a song for the next event, work on a pleasant round or a challenging part-song, or devise some cunning filk! In the new year, it is hoped that practices will be held somewhere more central - stay posted!

If you need encouragement or further information call Rakhel Petrova () on , or e-mail: .

Baronial Arts & Sciences: Monthly, at a variety of venues. See Regular Events for upcoming sessions, and contact A&S Minister (Oonagh) at Dragon Portal for full details.

Events marked † are not official SCA events - all others are.

UPCOMING EVENTS

DESCARTE ROYAL TOURNEY AND POTLUCK PICNIC

The King will be visiting Politarchopolis on Saturday 21st December and House Descarte is Hosting a Tournament and Potluck Picnic in his honour. Bring sunshade, sunscreen, sunhat, food and drink (some bread and cordials will be provided).

Venue: Edison Park - Justian St, Phillip.

Date: Sat. 21st December.

Cost: $1 Members / $2 Non-members

Time: Lists open at 12 noon, Tourney commences at 1pm.

For further details contact Sir Brusi Anderson of the Shetlands (Bruce Tobin) on 231 3522.

WANTED: Desperate feastocrat seeks foolhardy volunteers.

For hard labour with no reward, no pay and little fame, but lots of thanks. For twelfth night, January AS XXXI Anyone foolish enough to wish to reply please call Kiriel du Papillon at House Thingummyjig on 290 0902. See the table at the end of this Tayle for details of those already committed (we use the term wisely), and note the areas where support is still wanting

ALSO WANTED - LODGING

Many thanks to those who have already offered accommodation those wayfaring to Politarchopolis for Twelfth Night. However, bookings are starting to build up and I desperately need more places for wayfarers to stay. If you can provide accommodation, please contact Oriel of the Gypsies (Vicki Watson) on 258 9587 as soon as possible. Ideally, I need to know the number of people you can accommodate, what the wayfarers need to bring (e.g. sleeping bags) and whether children/pets/smokers can stay with you.

AAF Feast

The AAF will be holding a feast to celebrate their 10th anniversary on Saturday 8 February, 1997. More details in future issues of Griffintayle.

VALENTINES BALL (SATURDAY FEBRUARY 15)

On Saturday February 15, Politarchopolis will once again host the Valentines Ball where you can be assured of much dancing and even a light supper. The Ball will be held at St John's Hall, Reid from 6.30pm. Cost is $8 for members and $10 for non-members. Bookings are required by February 10. Please let me know if you have a favourite dance, so that I can ask (bribe???) the musicians to play it at the Ball

For bookings and further information, please contact Oriel of the Gypsies (Vicki Watson) on 258 9587.

TOURNEY IN THE PARK AND POT-LUCK PICNIC (SUNDAY MARCH 9)

We will once again be holding Tourney in the Park. in conjunction with the Canberra Festival on Sunday March 9. Lists and armour inspection at 11.30, and the tourney starts at 12 (please be on time). While I'd like to run it as a Rose Tourney, I haven't yet decided what format the tourney will take. so if any fighters have a favourite "format" or a new one they'd like to see tried, please contact me. There will be a prize for the most entertaining fighter and best heraldic display (to be judged by Their Excellencies). There will also be a static display, a dancing display, music and games. Please bring along a pot-luck lunch to share. Cost is $3 for both members and non-members. Bookings would be appreciated. NOTE: The event will be cancelled if the weather is very bad - if in doubt, please check with my scribe on the day.

For further information - and especially if you can help with the displays - please contact Oriel of the Gypsies (Vicki Watson) on 258 9587.

FROM THE BARON AND BARONESS

Unto the Populace of Politarchopolis do Stephen and Mathilde send Greetings and salutations in this the festive season.

As another year draws to a close and the Yuletide spirit takes us in its grasp we would like to take the time to thank our Populace for another busy and fruitful year. Our recent wayfaring has only confirmed our pride in the people who make Politarchopolis what it is. It was with great pleasure that we witnessed both long-standing members and some new faces being rewarded for their efforts. Congratulations to you all especially Mistress Francesca Cellini who was elevated to the peerage as Mistress of the Laurel.

We would like to thank too, those gentles who helped with the Royal Visit Tourney and Potluck. Especially our Seneschal Llewellyn de Guerre who stepped in at the last moment when Mistress Ysabeau Chanteuse and her family had to travel to Rowany with baby Bridget. The evening was very pleasant and a good time was had by all (do we really have that many children running around in Politarchopolis?) Of course you all will be attending the next Royal Tournament and Potluck on the 21 December won't you because.....His Majesty Jade, King of the West, is coming to Politarchopolis. So gird your loins, cook your food and join House Descarte in making His Majesty welcome.

Of course the arrival of Yule means that 12th Night is not far away. Preparations are underway but more help is needed. If you are available, Fridays at The Mummery have been put aside to make things. So far we've made pastries, marzipan fruit, sorbet and sugar bells, and there is more to come.

Have a very joyful and safe holiday season.
Yours in service,
Stephen and Mathilde
Baron and Baroness Politarchopolis.

OFFICERS' NOTICES, REPORTS, ETC.

FROM THE SENESCHAL

Greetings unto the Populace

Just a short one. A reminder to all Baronial officer to get end of reign reports in. Congratulations to everyone who received awards or won tournaments. A request to the populace: if you know of any gentle deserving of an award, please put in the nominations.

Yours in service,

Llewellyn de Guerre

FROM THE ARTS & SCIENCES MISTRESS

Unto the Populace does Oonagh send Yule greetings.

Firstly congratulations to our newest member of the Order of the Laurel, Mistress Francesca Cellini. And to our Baroness Mathilde for her Rose Leaf. Well deserved of both them.

Secondly congratulations to Elysium and Sybille on attaining their AOA at Yule. And further to Lady Sybille for becoming the first journeyman of the Musicians Guild. Well done.

Next, another merchant has kindly agreed to honour our members with a 10% discount upon presentation of your membership card. The Sewing Basket, 107 Marconi Crescent, KAMBAH. Discount does not apply to sale items.

Remember that if you would like to make any suggestions for Arts and Sciences collegia for next year now is the time to do so. I will be around over the Yule and New Year break so feel free to call.

Until next year, Yule tide blessings to all.
Yours in service

Oonagh

CHANDLER'S REPORT

Greetings all,

Our fair barony is gearing up for Twelfth Night. As part of this, I would once again beg of you all to donate items to the Hospitallery. Clothing will be in large demand. Lady Oriel has already warned me of record numbers of newcomers coming to the event.

Also if you have any spare serving or feasting utensils (platters, goblets and cutlery especially) please consider donating some. Hospitallery does not have any where near enough (especially drinking vessels) to cater for our current levels of new and interested people.

Also, a couple of months ago I assisted Mistress Francesca in compiling a head-count of the Baronial banners. We compiled the following list:

Type:	Amount we own:	Amount in Hospit:
Red/White (medium square)	20	2
Red/White (medium pointed)	20	2
White (medium pointed)	5	3
White (extra long)	10	7
Tops cut from White (extra long)	8	6
Red (medium)	6	6
Red (extra long)	7	2 (+ 1 damaged)
Tops cut from Red (extra long)	10	5 (+ 2 damaged)
Red (medium wide)	10	3
Table runners (long)		13
Table runners (short)		12
Multicoloured banners (small)	30	24

As you can see out of an estimated 130 banners owned by this barony, we know the whereabouts of 58. If anyone has any of the missing banners please contact either myself or Mistress Francesca. No recriminations. We would just like them found.

Season's greetings for the upcoming holidays and I urge you to help in any way to make Twelfth Night a success.

Meliora de Curci

HOSPITALLER'S REPORT

Firstly, many, to all those who came to help with the displays at Dickson College and the Weetangera Primary School fete. The Dickson display went really well, though the one at the fete was more problematic (we had to do it indoor due to inclement weather).

Please don't forget to let me know if you can provide accommodation for those wayfaring to Politarchopolis for Twelfth Night (many thanks to those who have already contacted me).

Lastly, a quick reminder that I have photocopies of a couple of costuming books and a Tournaments Illuminated article about device submissions that may be useful for newcomers.

Yours in service
Oriel of the Gypsies

FROM THE CHRONICLERS

For starters, this is the last Griffintayle before Twelfth Night, so PAY ATTENTION to the various notices regarding assistance needed, T-shirts, bookings, and so on. You know you'll hate yourself if you miss it...

Secondly, there are a few items in the calendar at the front with question marks next to them. This is a common sense thing - while the only thing we know to be cancelled is the council meeting that would be on January 1st, we would strongly recommend phoning ahead before going to fighter training or arts & sciences on days like Christmas, New Year's eve, or whatever.

CONGRATULATIONS to the following Gentles who received awards at Rowany Yule from the Queen's own hand:

Lady Francesca Cellini (now Mistress Francesca) - the Order of the Laurel

Mistress Kiriell du Papillon - the Queen's Order of Grace Elysium Duranté della Francesca (now Lord Elysium) - an Award of Arms

Sybil du Chat (now Lady Sybil) - an Award of Arms

CONGRATULATIONS to the following Gentles who received awards at the Royal Birthday Picnic from the Queen's own hand:

Baroness Mathilde - a Single Leaf of the Rose
Sir Hugh the Little - a Leaf of Merit

CONGRATULATIONS to the following Gentles who received Baronial Awards at the Royal Birthday Picnic:
To Mistress Bess Haddon of York for Service - the Order of the Burly Griffin
To Lady Juliana Richelot for Service - the Order of the Burly Griffin
To Lady Oonagh O'Neil of the Blue Mists for Arts and Sciences - the Order of the Burly Griffin
Michael Strongarm - the Griffin's Egg
Simon of the Amazing Colours - the Griffin's Egg

Yours in service,
Nicodemus and Emily

The Ancient Greeks identified gryphons with the MONSTERS which guarded treasure in the country of the Hyperboreans. They watched over Dionysos' krater of wine and they hunted the gold-seekers in the mountains. Apollo rode a gryphon. They symbolised strength and vigilance, as well as the obstacles to be overcome in reaching the goal.

4th Day of December - Feast of Saint Barbara, said to have been martyred in Nicodemia, Heliopolis, Tuscany and Rome.

5th Day of December - Feast of Saint Crispina, who was shaved bald to humiliate her before she was beheaded.

6th Day of December - Feast of Saint Nicholas, who loves children, pawnbrokers and sailors.

7th Day of December - Feast of Saint Ambrose, proclaimed bishop of Milan before he was even a Christian.

8th Day of December - Feast of Saint Budoc, who was born at sea in a barrel.

9th Day of December - Feast of Saint Wolfeius, first hermit in Norfolk.

10th Day of December - Feast of Saint Eulalia, virgin and martyr, who spat at her judge and was burned alive.

11th Day of December - Feast of Saint Daniel, who lived thirty-three years atop a pillar.

12th Day of December - Feast of Saints Mercuria, Dionysia, Ammonaria, and the other Ammonaria, holy women killed by heathens.

13th Day of December - Feast of Saint Judoc, whose hair and beard grew after his death and had to be trimmed by his followers.

14th Day of December - Feast of Saint Hybald, abbot of Lincolnshire

15th Day of December - Feast of Saint Offa, king of the East Saxons, who left his wife, his lands, his family, and his country to become a monk in Rome and die.

16th Day of December - Feast of Saint Bean, lakeside hermit in Ireland.

17th Day of December - Feast of Saint Lazarus, who was raised from the dead by Jesus and later went to France.

18th Day of December - Feast of Saint Mawnan, an Irish bishop who kept a pet ram.

19th Day of December - Feast of Saint Nemesius, acquitted of theft but executed for being a Christian.

20th Day of December - Feast of Saints Ammon, Zeno, Ptolemy, Ingenes, and Theophilus, soldiers martyred by the Romans.

21st Day of December - Feast of Saint Thomas the Apostle.

22nd Day of December - Feast of Saints Chaeremon, Ischyron, and other Egyptian Christians, who were driven into the desert and never seen again.

23rd Day of December - Feast of Saint Victoria, a Roman virgin stabbed to death for refusing to sacrifice to idols.

24th Day of December - Eve of Christmas Day and Feast of Saint Mochua of Timahoe, an Irish monk who was once a soldier.

25th Day of December - Christmas Day Waes Hail!

26th Day of December - Feast of Saint Stephen, stoned to death for blasphemy. First day of Christmas.

27th Day of December - Saint John's Day. Second Day of Christmas.

28th Day of December - Childermas, the Feast of the Holy Babes and Sucklings, killed by King Herod. Third day of Christmas.

29th Day of December - Saint Thomas of Canterbury's Day. Fourth day of Christmas.

30th Day of December - Feast of Saint Egwin, bishop of Worcester, Fifth day of Christmas.

31st Day of December, Feast of Saint Sylvester, the pope who cured the emperor Constantine of leprosy. Sixth day of Christmas.

Twelfth Night T-Shirts

Twelfth Night T-Shirts in the above design, by Sebastian Penn, in red on white, will be available for $20 each, $15 for children's sizes. Pre-payment is appreciated for all sizes, and will be required for children's sizes.

Please ring Bess Haddon of York (Sarah Randles) before 10pm on 251 4491 to order. Orders must be placed by Monday 16th of December, but there will be larger size t-shirts on sale on a first-come, first-served basis.

All profits will go to the SCAACT Inc land fund.

*Very small children's sizes may not be available, as the design may be too large - we will have more information shortly.

ROWANY FESTIVAL SITE PREPS

Do you want to change the world? Do you want to make a better place for us all to live?

If you do then you should come to Rowany Festival site preps. This is your chance to make this Rowany Festival the best ever. We need all the people we can get to help prepare and improve the site for Festival. There is much to do and very little time so come on down to Wilton and pitch it.

But I have no transport I hear you say: Then give the site prep co-ordinator, Alfar of Attica, a call on 9747-3029 and he will help organise you a lift.

But I have no tools I hear you say: The Barony owns many of the tools that will be needed at site preps including safety goggles and gloves.

But I like to eat regularly I hear you say: Site prep supplies water, cordial, sausages, cold meat, bread, sauce and salad for all helpers.

What will I get out of it I hear you ask: By helping with site preps you will help make Festival the best event it can possibly be. This will make your time at Festival even more enjoyable.

So what is happening and which weeks should you turn up?

Saturday 7th December

loading rubbish on the truck

All the help we can get is needed at every site prep to make the job easier. If you don't think you can help on a particular day then come on a different week. If you have any other questions call the site prep coordinator, Alfar of Attica, or the Steward, Elspeth Turberville, on 9747-3029.

My Ladie steps to dance
 so fine and faire to see,
 my heart, bound by her glance,
 shall nevermore be free.

When she to hunt doth ride,
 her falcon swift in flyte
 hath not more grace or pride nor beautie to my sight.

When in her green-leaved bobber all berried bright, she sings, for that enchanted hour
 my soule soares on loves wings.

But if she grieues, my heart keeps sorely for her paine, nor does my sorrow parte
 until she laughs againe.

For mee her smile is blisse more sweet than Paradise—iff damned I bee for this,
 I'll gladly pay the price.

TWELFTH NIGHT ACCOMMODATION REQUIRED

Many thanks to those who have already offered accommodation those wayfaring to Politarchopolis for Twelfth Night. However, I still need more places for wayfarers to stay. If you can provide accommodation, please contact Oriel of the Gypsies (Vicki Watson) on 258 9587 as soon as possible. Ideally, I need to know the number of people you can accommodate, what the wayfarers need to bring (e.g. sleeping bags) and whether children/pets/smokers can stay with you.

The following is a table of the people that have volunteered so far to assist with 12th night preparations.

As you can see, there are some blanks in this picture. If you would like to assist, please contact the 12th night Autocrat, Robyn Hodgkin on 2900902 hm or email her at robyn.hodgkin@dpie.gov.au. Ideally, I would like there to be a different person willing to be held responsible for each different task.
