Shire meeting notes: July.

Place: The Winter Palace
 Date: 1/7/92
 Time: 7.30pm

Present: Norman, Jacinta, Russ, Helen W, Louise, Penny, John, Amanda, Simon, Libby, Dean, Phil, Karen, Jocelyn, Michael, Kate, Daniel, Jeff, Shayn, Paul.

Apologies: Sharen, Elizabeth, David, Michelle, Eddy, Megan, Robin.

List Report: Nothing as there have been no tourneys.

Archery Report: About 20 people turn up every archery day. Combat archery has new people interested and some armour is available but it would help if minimum is owned. The last town archer was won by Simon. The Arts and Sciences competition at archery was won by Simon Arthur with an armguard. The next competition is for a decorative arrow which must be fired from a bow at least once.

Fencing report: Right mess with nothing working right.

Constable report: Nothing except for the constable and hospitaller auction which raised 15gp.

Reeve Report: It is now ANZ.

Herald report: 3 submissions.

Promises Report: The Promises editor position is available please apply in writing to the holder of the current position or else to the seneschal. Please send articles.

Griffintayle Report: I hope that everybody obtained a Griffintayle last month. If anyone would like to be a deputy for this position with the aim of taking over in a few months please write up a resume with your skills and resources and give it to either myself or the seneschal.

Lochac Fencing Report: It will now take place on Sunday afternoons at 3.00pm at Cher Chez.

Arts and sciences Report: There is to be a collegium on 22/23rd of August. Please see flyer for details. Arts and Sciences occurs every second Tuesday (7.30pm) at the Winter Place.

Hospitalar: Thanks for those who attended the Working Bee last Saturday. Especially to Louise for the engraver. The Garb was labled. Indexing to do as well as serving tabards.

Griffintayle: If anyone is interested in taking over Griffintayle please give a written request to either myself or the Seneschal.

Lochac Fencing: New rules about to come out.

Lochac Constable: There is a new policy for smoking in the SCA. No smoking in enclosed areas and a total ban on filtered ciggurettes.

General Business:

Crossroads: The formation meeting is on 25 July.

Libby: There is a sale on a book about traditional embroidered animals at Collins.

Helen W: Needleworkers newsletter before Spring coronet. Please Help. 29th July is to be a newcomers night.

Edmund: We need some help to create a constables handbook for Australian conditions.

Louise: There are copies of the last 2 issues of Promises for sale here. Also handed over a cheque and some cash for previous sales.

Norm: Should we take money for the SCA if we provide a background group of people for Weddings/Parties/etc.

Helen W: Music Practise and Dance are on the 3rd and 5th Wed.

Karen: Children probably shouldn't dance with adults in Fast dances.

Close: 9.05pm

Shire meeting notes: August.

Place: ANU
 Date: 5/8/92
 Time: 7.30pm

Present: Megan, Doug, Louise, Penny, Jacinta, Russ, Michelle, Norman, Amanda, Phil Oculus, Rhys, Cathy, Karen, Helen, Michael, Robert?, Jocelyn, Elizabeth, Sandra, Helen W, Ian.

Apologies: Libby, Simon, Beth, John, Sharen, Alan Brain.

Crossroads: Rhys reports that the formation meeting has occurred and that we are waiting for the registration to occur once the forms are sent in. The nine Directors of the Crossroads Medieval Village Co-operative Ltd were elected at the meeting. Crossroads have had letters of support from several Medieval groups.

Seneschal: Hope to make coronet. Please make phone calls before 9.00pm. All officers require deputies. A BOD ruling is that ALL Autocrats MUST be a paid up member of the society. There are many more ways of helping out with September coronet than just cooking. Please contact Michelle at The Orchard if you do wish to help.

Herald: There have been three submissions of devices. Illegible. Rhys will return missing Camels.

Hospittaler: Asking for people who can accomodate visitors to Spring Coronet to contact and give details.. ie numbers, smokers etc.

Lists: The tourney was round robin. Garath of Greymarch won final round. The list board needs rebuilding. Lady Morag will provide devices.

Reeve: Lots of money. Ball d'Argent profits received. Final report to Boss. Hoskhald has taken over with the official handover at the Shepherds feast.

Constable: Pegasus - partial list of lost property.

Archery Report: Bigger venue. People tidy up. Beth has volunteered to embroider names on it. Soup.

College Seneschal: Problems with ? College feast.

Chronicler: Replacements not finalised. Promises will be available at Coronet.

Chirurgen: Clean and Restocked First Aid kit.

Anticipation

*The sweat sits upon the brow
Just sits there, not yet falling.
The blade is clean – for now.
Blood has not begun its calling.*

*The ground is clean and dew covered,
Not yet slippery with mud.
Dawn has a new day discovered,
But soon there will be blood.*

*Boys are scared, unsure of what
Will come to them or friends.
The veteran waits and cleans his sword,
Either might meet their end.*

*Armour clangs, a horse stirs,
In that anticipation.
None thinks of king or curse,
Nor their love or nation.*

*The carrion birds sit and wait,
Knowing foolish human ways.
We are the ones that make no peace,
Not for all of human days.*

Unto the populace of Politarchopolis
Does your Seneshal send greetings.

Well, are you all organised for September Coronet? Don't forget, the success of this event depends on all of us helping out in whatever way we can. There are lots of ways you can help out. A few that spring to mind: cooking before the event; setting up the hall on the day; helping out the constables, heralds, marshalls and surgeons during the event; helping clean up the hall afterwards. Maybe you know some other ways of making this event a little more enjoyable for the steward, and those other people who have already volunteered. Please, if you're interested in helping out, any offers will be gratefully accepted. Call Lady Francesca or myself if you've got any questions about how you can contribute.

I remind all those of you reading this that the producer of this excellent publication requires a deputy. In fact, all the officers need to have deputies. I myself have two - Lord John of the Hills and Lord Lorenzo Erudini. So if you're interested in learning how to run an office, talk to the relevant officer. I'm sure they'll be glad to hear from you.

Did everybody read the draft town charter published in Griffintayle in June? Does everybody know what we're talking about when we discuss advancements in status, charters and baronies? If you want to talk about it more, please do so, and please let me know. At this stage, I have received nothing in writing objecting to anything in the charter, and have only had one person question why we are discussing something different to Baronial status. Is this silence to be taken as general consent?

If there are no violent objections, I propose to present a copy of the draft charter to their Highnesses at September Coronet. This will only be a draft, and I hope that their Highnesses will comment favourably on it. It may be that their Highnesses reject the concept outright. I ask you all to consider what action YOU think we should take if that happens.

I hope to see all of you at some stage in the next month, either at Town Archer, the Arts & Sciences Collegia, September Coronet, or any of the other activities within this incredibly busy Shire of ours. I remain yours in service to Politarchopolis,

Ysabeau

from the BOARD OF DIRECTORS

Greetings!

A proposal has been sent to the Board of Directors that the Society redesignate the three Peerages (the Order of Chivalry (which includes both Knights and Masters of Arms), the Order of the Laurel, and the Order of the Pelican) as knighthoods.

The rationale for the proposal is as follows:

1. Such redesignation would more closely follow the practices of the Middle Ages and Renaissance, wherein knighthoods were given not just for military prowess but for service and patronage as well.

All orders created by monarchs in the period of study of the S.C.A. were knighthoods. Memberships in these orders were not limited to fighting men. Women, merchants, burghers, the Lord Mayor of London, tradesmen, craftsmen, and administrators were all granted knighthoods as early as the 14th Century. Elevations for service were not at all uncommon in Tudor England. Sir Thomas More is only the most famous example of this.

2. Such redesignation could instill more firmly in the minds of the populace of the Society that the three Peerage Orders are equal by designating them equally.

The proposal presented to the Board states that there is a perception by some in the Society that has been worded as, "All the Peerages are equal, but the Knights are more equal." The Chivalry have different, usually more elaborate, investiture ceremonies than the Laurels and Pelicans, and have more insignia of rank: belt and chain, and often spurs. The other Peerages generally have only a medallion. The Knights are given an exclusive form of address commonly perceived and widely recognized by even the newest participants in the Society as having high status. Members of the Laurel and Pelican are given a form of address which not only is not intuitively of high status, but is in fact what amounted to a guild rank in period.

The proposal believes that redesignating all the Peerages as knighthoods would reduce or eliminate the perception (whether well- or ill-founded) of "greater" and "lesser" peerages. By giving them equal status and treatment, they would be equally worth striving for.

3. Such redesignation might eliminate some of the negative connotations sometimes associated with the forms of address "Master" and "Mistress."

Many members of the Laurel and Pelican feel strongly enough about these negative connotations that they prefer to use another title if at all possible. A number of these Peers, when given a court barony, have used the form of address "Baron/Baroness" almost exclusively for this very reason.

4. Such redesignation could free the terms "Master" and "Mistress" for those who have yet to be awarded Arms, as a generalized term of politeness, which is parallel to medieval style.

The recommendation presents two different forms for the proposed redesignation:

A. Organize each of the three Orders as the Knights and Masters of Arms are organized now: Knights (of Arms, of the Laurel, of the Pelican) could swear fealty and wear the reserved chain. They could be addressed as "Sir" or "ladies, if they prefer, may be addressed as "Dame." Knights of Arms could wear a white belt and the chain. Knights of the Laurel and of the Pelican could wear their Order's medallion and the chain.

Those choosing not to swear fealty could not wear the chain and could be addressed as "Masters/Mistresses of Arms, the Laurel, or the Pelican. Masters/Mistresses of Arms could wear a white baldric, as they do now. Masters/Mistresses of the Laurel and of the Pelican could wear their medallions as they do now.

B. Reorganize each of the three Orders of Peerage as Knighthoods. Those who swear fealty could wear the reserved chain. Those who do not, could not wear the chain. All could be addressed as "Sir" (or "Dame" for those ladies who prefer it). All Knights of Arms (which would incorporate current Masters/Mistresses of Arms) could wear a white belt; all Knights of the Laurel and Knights of the Pelican (whether or not they swear fealty) could wear the medallion of their Order.

FROM THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS

QUESTIONNAIRE

The Board of Directors wants your opinion about the proposal of redesignating the three Peerages as knighthoods generally, and about each of the suggested forms of the proposed redesignation. Please answer the questions below, and please feel free to give us more than a simple "like/don't like"; if there is insufficient space on the page here, please add another page(s) to give us the benefit of your thoughts.

1. ☐ I LIKE the proposed redesignation of all the Peerages as knighthoods. (Please go on to answer Questions 2, 3 and 4.)
☐ I DO NOT like the proposed redesignation of all the Peerages as knighthoods. (Please go on to answer Question 4. If you have any particular feelings about Questions 2 and 3, please feel free to answer them as well.)
Why?

2. Proposal A suggests redesignating the Chivalry, Laurels, and Pelicans as Orders of Knighthood. Those members of each Order who swear fealty could wear the chain of fealty and could be addressed as "Sir," or "Dame" in the case of those ladies who so chose. Those who do not swear fealty would not wear the chain of fealty and could be addressed as "Master/Mistress" of Arms, the Laurel, or the Pelican.
☐ I LIKE Proposal A.
☐ I DO NOT like Proposal A.
Why?

3. Proposal B suggests redesignating the Chivalry, Laurels, and Pelicans as Orders of Knighthood. Those members of each Order who swear fealty could wear the chain of fealty. Those who do not swear fealty could not wear the chain of fealty. All members of the three Orders could be addressed as "Sir," or "Dame" in the case of those ladies who so chose.
☐ I LIKE Proposal B.
☐ I DO NOT like Proposal B.
Why?

4. Do you have any suggestions as to another way the issues noted by these proposals may be addressed? Please let us know what they are as well as the rationale behind them. (If you need more space, please use another piece of paper.)

5. My rank or highest SCA award level is:
☐ Duke/Duchess
☐ Count/Countess
☐ Viscount/Viscountess
☐ Peer (KSCA/MoA/Laurel/Pelican)
(Circle as applicable)
☐ Grant of Arms
☐ Award of Arms
☐ No armigerous award yet

6. Legal Name: _____ SCA Name: _____
(Please type/print clearly. The Board is unable to consider anonymous communications.)

This questionnaire may be copied and distributed to anyone who is interested in completing it. Completed questionnaires should be sent to the Corporate Secretary, Alyson Burnett, P.O. Box 1654, Lawrence, KS 66044, by 31 December 1992. Thank you for your time and opinions in helping the Board consider this proposal. ♣
