General Information for New People.

If you have not attended any SCA events all that you must do is make an attempt at pre 1600 clothing. It is traditional that you bring your own eating implements to any feasts. Clothing and feasting gear may be hired from the Hospitaller who is listed on the last page.

For more information about the Society for Creative Anachronism please call Katrina Hunt on (06) 254 3059 or Megan Jackson on (06) 294 1572.

The Editor's Words.

Problems with the July issue. Dancetty and Mummery had their phone numbers interchanged. If you have any comments about Griffintayle and especially if you spot any errors please write them down and send it to me. Also items for inclusion in each issue of Griffintayle MUST be received on the third Wednesday of the month prior to the month of issue. If needed items may be faxed to the editor but please ring (06) 216 4636 during office hours.

Local events.

At the Australian National Library in the Peoples Treasure section are four books of hours and a bible on display. Also two books by Albrecht Durer and one of his woodcuts. A Korean book called Samgang huengsilto, printed in 1490, is also displayed there. Also in the recent acquisitions display, which is on the way to the main reading room, is a coloured world map printed in 1588.

Films.

Orlando is now showing at Electric Shadows. On Sunday the 17th of October 'Rosencrantz and Guildenstern are dead' and 'Henry V' are the Sunday night double for $8.00.

This is Griffintayle, a publication of the shire of Poltuosopolis in the Society for Creative Anachronism (Incorporated in South Australia and the U.S.A.) Griffintayle is available from PO Box 1085, Quambyvan, NSW, 2620. Griffintayle is not a corporate publication of the Society for Creative Anachronism and does not delineate official SCA policies. From the Hospitallery

Firstly thanks to the autocrats giving us advance notice of their requirements and early return of Hospitallery, none more so than the Wombles whose gear was cleaned and returned on the Monday night after their revel (possibly a land speed record).

In order to provide the best possible service for you, and allow us at least some family life, please bear the following in mind:

1. If the porch light is off please pretend we're not home. (emergencies excepted) ps the porch light is almost always on.
2. Thursday evenings are our only listed family evenings, please respect this.
3. Sunday evenings 5pm till 7pm are quiet time, to bed the children down after yet another exciting weekend, please do not plan to phone or visit during this time.
4. Please try not to ring us between 5.30pm and 7.30pm on any evening, as this is the busiest part of the day for us (Cooking, eating, bathing children, cleaning, dishes...)
5. With the exception of emergencies please do not ring us after 9.30pm, although it doesn't really show we like our beauty sleep.

That said we are only too happy to help people and make ourselves available for visitations and newcomers.

On an entirely different note the Mummery will be having an open day on October the 3rd. All are welcome to attend, for any of the following reasons: FVO BBQ (some salads and nibbles supplied), sit and chat, work on something you haven't finished, sit and chat, hit each other with sticks (in the park next door), sit and chat, watch bathurst, sit and chat, have a quiet(?) drink, sit and chat, or any one of a dozen other things you can think of.
