Griffintayle Re-visited

Welcome back to the Monthly Newsletter for the Barony of Politarchopolis.

Firstly, I would like to thank Jadwiga Z Katowic for her fabulous work as Baronial Chronicler for the past 2 years. Keeping us up to date with all things across the Barony and Kingdom with the Burley Griffin Bulletin.

While we look for a member of the populace to take on this office we will be seeing the Griffintayle revived.

We will be bringing you information about the many activities, events and happenings throughout this great Barony. Please feel free to send your comments, ideas and content to chronicler@politarchopolis.lochac.sca.org.

Along with all our other media Web, Facebook, Twitter and Instagram you will be able to find all the Society has to offer.

Each month we will bring you the past, present and future and hopefully help you discover and enjoy the Society for Creative Anachronism. Remember this is your newsletter, so please contribute, read and enjoy.

Yours in Service

is a community group in Canberra and the surrounding region devoted to learning medieval skills and enjoying medieval pastimes. We don't just read about history, we live it!

Fighting, feasting, costuming, crafting, music, dance... if it was done in pre-17th century Europe, we know someone interested in recreating it.

And not just in the ACT! We're part of a global organisation called the Society for Creative Anachronism (the SCA), and we're one of 42 local groups in the Australia/New Zealand chapter: the Kingdom of Lochac.

Events around the Kingdom
