Greeting Politarchopolans,

We've been travelling a plenty and just about to leave for the Spring Crown Tournament in the Shire of Adora. August saw us visit Radburne War, where the battles were plentiful and we awarded Katrijn Van Delden and Terrence of Radburne the Griffin's wing in recognition of their hospitality and care they show towards our populace during each of the 14 times they have running this event, Closer to home we enjoyed the market day, welcoming all and meeting several newcomers at their first ever sca experience. The weekend after that we travelled again to the Strathcorbie leg of the Politarchopolis Grand tour, with fencing and armoured combat for all comers. The average attendee had driven over two hours, with visitors from Saint Florian, Stormhold, Bordescros, Politarchopolis and Krae Glas. We awarded Griffin's Wings to Mathilde de Lilburne and James Douglas for their continuous commitment to hospitality. For several decades, wayfarers travelling between the East Coast and Innilgard have found a safe place to rest on this arduous journey. Most often it is when they are on their way to an event within our Barony such as FoG. Back at home, we witnessed an excellent baronial armoured combat championship, with Jarl Thorolfr taking over duties, sash, tabard, and sword from retiring champion Mistress Alesia. It was wonderful to see the experienced hands and the newly authorised members of the barony fighting with such vigour. A Burly Griffin, Martial was awarded to Mistress Alesia for her consistent training of newcomers and commitment to the Barony's armoured combat trainings. Join her at the pell one Baronial Sunday and learn the art! Griffin Eggs were awarded to Evie and Eleanor for their constant grace patiently waiting for mum and dad to finish hitting people with sticks and assisting us with errands and holding our banners.

The next month sees King Ratbot and Queene Katherine's heirs chosen, with a number of Politarchopolans contesting. Short odds could be made for places 1-4 being from our fair Barony! We wish you all good hunting. For the last two weeks of September your Baronage will disappear to the warm climes to explore the coastline north of Riverhaven to simply stop and rest for a while. We have checked and cannot fit a whole Barony in our luggage. We hope that you all enjoy your month, and make quality medieval items, music, or moods.

Yours in Service

Baron Ysambart and Baroness Tigre

Queanbeyan Medieval Fair

Politarichopolis will be going to the Queanbeyan Medieval Fair 23-24th September. I will have some more details and requests for volunteers next week. I am hoping we can put together various combat and craft demonstrations as well as having displays of cool medieval stuff!

I know it's short notice and the weekend before Spring war but it would be great to have a good turnout and display.

Steward: Sir Kitan Von Falkenburg

St John's Community Fair

Again Politarichopolis have been invited to participate in the annual St John's Community Fair on Saturday October 14th.

The Barony will be putting on regular demonstrations of Armoured Combat and Rapier fighting in the List Field. There will also be displays of all things SCA in the information Tent. And this year there will be a Medieval Pie Shop

Look to the Facebook Pages for more details .

Have you ever wondered what the officers do?

Have you ever wanted to take on an office, but not sure how to go about it?

There are many ways that one can contribute to the running of a group, be it Kingdom, Barony, Shire, Canton or College.

Feel free to contact the office you are interested in to find out more about what is involved. You may feel that you are not ready or confident enough to take on an officer role, but you could consider becoming a Deputy (it is not always that a Deputy is expected to step up to the Officer role at the end of the incumbent's tenure) and learning more. Deputies also make the officer's role easier, as they can delegate tasks. You will see that many of the Kingdom Offices have Deputies that perform certain roles within the office, allowing others to concentrate on their roles and responsibilities.

Remember we are all here to have fun and make this game enjoyable.

Please reach out to your local Officers or Seneschal for more information.

Baronial Awards and Scrolls

The receiving of awards and scrolls is a wonderful occasion. To help celebrate this we would like to include details of these awards and photos of those who have received them.

With more in-person events happening around the Kingdom and within the Barony these should be celebrated.

Please let us know who within the Barony has received any awards at events either locally or outside of our boundaries and we will let all know of their achievements.

Image from the College of Scribes Website

The Scribal Arts are one of the many crafts that are practiced within the Kingdom and Society.

The time and dedication that is put into each and every scroll is often a wonder to behold. Help us to celebrate the works of these artists and those who receive these magnificent scrolls.

Send us pictures of scrolls that you have received and we will proudly display them for all to see.

Please send these to chronicler@politarchopolis.lochac.sca.org, include your name, what the scroll was for and when received. Also please include who the illuminator and calligrapher were. This way we can ensure all those whose work has gone into your scroll are recognized for their labours.

Baronial Hall Fees

The Ainslie Hall is an important part of life in Politarchopolis. Our weekly activities are where we can teach, practice, learn and show off our skills to all those within the Kingdom. It is a place for all to come together and enjoy the game we play. It is also where the Barony stores much of the equipment and Garb that we use to make our events something to remember.

To be able to continue using this space we have to ensure that we can afford to make the best of our time there. To do this the Barony put together a fee structure that allows all members and non-members access to the hall.

This year there is a small change to the payment of the Hall fees to line it up with the payments that we make to the Les Explorateurs Scouts who manage the Hall. This means that Hall fees are now from;

- January—March
- April—June
- July—September
- October—December

Adult Members and Non-Members can pay fees in the following ways;

- Weekly $ 5.00
- Monthly $ 13.50
- Quarterly $ 40.00
- Annually $160.00

Please remember that Non-Members must also pay an insurance cost of $5 (Minors) and $10 (Adults) per session.

The Barony of Politarchopolis

is a community group in Canberra and the surrounding region devoted to learning medieval skills and enjoying medieval pastimes. We don't just read about history, we live it!

Fighting, feasting, costuming, crafting, music, dance... if it was done in pre-17th century Europe, we know someone interested in recreating it.

And not just in the ACT! We're part of a global organisation called the Society for Creative Anachronism (the SCA), and we're one of 42 local groups in the Australia/New Zealand chapter: the Kingdom of Lochac.
