From the Baron & Baroness

Greetings to Politarchopolis, our Cantons Okewaite and Torlyon, and our Hamlet of Strathcorbie,

We hope you've had a relaxing holiday period and the opportunity for some downtime. As we enter 2026 our minds are full of plans, possibly schemes, and definitely excitement for the coming year.

The Greenhorn's Valentine's Day picnic is our first event of the year. Relaxed, fun and family-friendly with lots of activities and costs kept as low as possible, we are hoping to see as many of you there as can make it. We will bid fond farewell to our current Armoured Combat and Rapier Champions, welcome our new Champions and leave you with enough time to celebrate Valentine's Day with your loved ones in the evening.

Festival is not nearly as far away as we would like to think, and we are keen to see the red and white of Politarchopolans championing across all fields at Festival this year.

Our personal preparation has commenced as we start to pull together gear to take the war field as combat archers, clean up gear for rapier war and improve our archery equipment. With the addition of some much-needed new garb our A&S cards are very full.

Baronial Festival preparation is also in its early stages. You will have all seen the call for volunteer(s) to coordinate the Politarchopolis campsite – this role is critical. If you're not sure but think you might be interested in doing it come and talk to us or Crispin about it.

There are a range of ideas and projects either in the works (silk banners) or rumoured (rubber band guns, baronial tabards, new sunshades, heraldic melee) to increase our Barony's presence and pageantry. Come talk to us or Crispin if you've got an idea you want to implement or to take the lead on any of the rumoured activities.

We want to hear from you. Is there something we are doing that you like or dislike? Is there something we should be doing, or doing more of? Please send us an email (bandb@politarchopolis.lochac.sca.org), message, or otherwise approach us when we are free. We are grateful for any feedback or constructive criticism you are willing to provide.

In service to the Barony

Llewellyn and Rosa

Dear Megan

On behalf of St John's and the Fair Steering Committee I would like to thank the Society for Creative Anachronism so much for being part of the Fair this year by being part of the marvellous entertainment program and providing static displays and children's activities as well. Those people that attended really enjoyed the program outside on the lawns, in the church and in the hall because of the wonderful variety we had and helped make the Fair such a successful community event on the church's 180th anniversary. It really added to the atmosphere on the day. Thank you for what I am sure was many hours of practice leading up to the actual day of the Fair for the members participating in the tournaments and the dancers.

Please pass on our thanks to all members who attended the Fair.

We hope that you would like to be part of the Fair next year. The Fair will be held on Saturday 17 October 2026 so please place the date in your diary for next year.

Yours sincerely

Politarchopolis Officers

From the Seneschal

Greetings and welcome to 2026,

Our calendar for the year is starting to take shape, with regular Sunday activities starting again on the 11th of January, and an event on St Valentines Day in February. If there's something you'd like to see happen, please volunteer! We're looking for people to steward a demo or two and other events throughout the year.

For Rowany Festival, the biggest SCA event in the Kingdom, we'll once again have a Politarchopolis campsite with a food fund. Details still being worked out, but there's no cost to be in the Polit campsite and a very reasonable fee for being in the food fund.

There has been some discussion about getting the College of St Aldhelms going again at the ANU. If you're interested in joining the college or helping out in any way, please contact Their Excellencies or myself.

Thank you to Dame Helouys le Poer for applying for the office of Constable. The changeover will be at the Valentines Day Picnic.

Lastly, we're looking for someone to be our new Chandler - this officer looks after our equipment, primarily our storeroom at the Ainslie Scout Hall. If you enjoy sorting stuff and don't mind climbing ladders, then this is the job for you - come chat if you would like to know more.

Arts & Sciences Musings

Greetings all, thank you for continuing to inspire me and others, the sharing of knowledge around the Barony and Cantons is so very pleasing to see. Three cheers to those recognised by the Crown and Barony for their teaching and creative efforts. Congratulations to THL Igulfridr on being recognised as the Baronial A&S Champion.

Many thanks to THL Conciata and her team for running the A&S at Fields of Gold. The wide range of classes and well run A&S competitions were wonderful to participate in. If you'd like to chat about your new inspirations, contact me for a Rabbit Hole or Guild Guest date.

On 7 February, Lochac is part of the Tri-Kingdom Online University - many classes, many interests, some local names. Join me in learning new things and supporting new and experienced presenters.

Could the cook's potluck on 8 February inspire you to try new flavours or cooking styles? See Mestrez Ysabeau's announcement (on page 13) and her chat on Byzantine food. If you wish to enter your Byzantine food item into the upcoming Kingdom A&S Competition, I will have local judges at Ainslie Hall on that day.

My officer warrant is due in July this year, which means I should have a Deputy. Being Deputy doesn't automatically mean you will be the next Baronial Officer, I hasten to add. It is a good way to see how the office works (well, the way I do it), meet many in the Barony, and it's more a record keeping and coordinating role with a dash of general minister for enthusiasm. I may need to be interstate for periods of 2026, so that could be an opportunity for you as Deputy to step in for the experience without the full responsibility. Email me at arts@politarchopolis.lochac.sca.org or catch me at Ainslie Hall for a chat.

What are you excited about? Care to see if others could be? Chat/dm with me for a Rabbit Hole slot, open every second Sunday of the month.

Hello Barony!

I will be running a Baronial silk banner making workshop, across 4-weekends, over February 1st, 8th, 15th and March 1st. This workshop is limited to 10 people.

Sessions will last up to 1.5 hours working to a 2:15pm setup to start at 2:30pm timeframe.

This is a learning mechanism. What we will be doing is creating 10 Baronial banners. What you will get out of this is being shown the process from woah to go. The Barony will end up with not only banners but the general infrastructure (frames, pins and elastic bands) to make further banners, including being borrowed for personal use.

What is required from you? Commitment over the 4 sessions to help with the making process.

You'll learn how to attach silk to a frame, drawing on the design with gutta, techniques for applying the dye, and how to finish the banner for use. All materials will be provided, including the templates.

Session 1 – Overview of the process and starting to stretch the silk onto frames.

Session 2 – Finishing any silk stretching and applying the gutta.

Session 3 – Doing the dyeing. Tips, tricks, and things to watch out for.

Session 4 – Making the hoists, ironing, and rolled hems. D-O-N-E.

NB: This process is also planned to be replicated for Okewaite and Torlyon. But it would be extremely helpful for an attendee from each canton to be present at these initial sessions.

If you would like to be part of this process, please email (or Facebook msg) me – alexandramrapp@gmail.com

Talk about a rabbit hole!

Rather than just talk about Byzantine food, Mestrez Ysabeau invites interested cooks and tasters to join her for a mini pot-luck of Byzantine food at Ainslie Hall on 8 February 2026. (Yes, this is a not even slightly subtle attempt to get lots of food entries for the Kingdom Arts & Sciences competition at Autumn Crown, and an article for the Cooks Guild newsletter.)

Even if you're not interested in entering the competition, think of the fun you'll have exploring Byzantine cuisine and creating your dish for the pot-luck. And if you do want to enter the competition, please remember to bring your documentation with you.

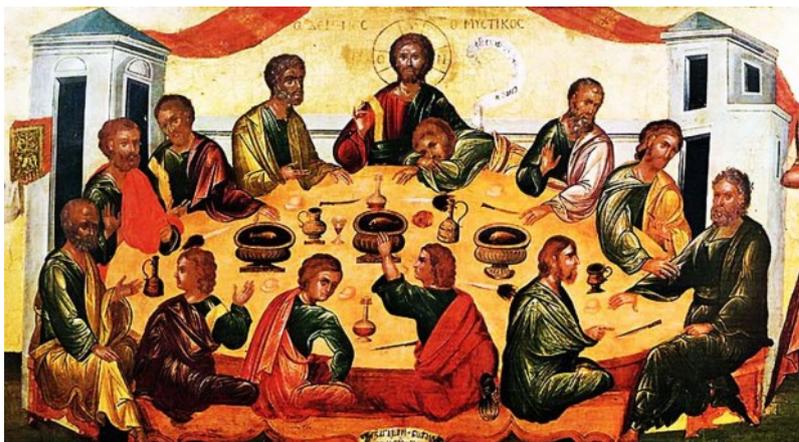

Competition entry forms will be available on the day. And yes, there's separate forms for young people, so the children are most welcome to join in!

To ensure that not everyone prepares honey fritters, we do need some level of control over the dishes. So, unless there's an overwhelming need to do otherwise, please follow the plan below:

Your SCA name begins with	Menu item
A-F	Entrees or Bread
G-M	Vegetable Protein
N -S	Sweet Dish
T-Z	Animal Protein

Attendance at the pot-luck is covered by your regular hall payments. If you don't regularly attend the hall, participating in the pot-luck will attract a $6 fee. If you have questions, or you don't want your photo or a photo of your food included in the Cooks Guild newsletter, please contact Ysabeau at megan@meganwatts.org

Many thanks to our judges for donating their time and taste buds to allow this pot-luck to happen.

Greenhorn Hangouts

Hi, are you young and wanting to know more about the SCA and join in all the wonderful activities.

We'll look forward to new and fun activities at the Civic Library in January AS 60 (2026) Wednesday 7th and 21st of January 5.45pm - 7.45pm look out for FB notifications

The Barony of Politarchopolis is looking for all those under the age of 35 to come along to meet others and learn more about the Society and what it has to offer in a comfortable, social and engaging environment.

Each session will have activities where you will be able to learn about a variety of topics from garb, food, entertainment and other fun past-times. Also you will be able to relax and socialise with others while working on any little or large projects you may be doing. There may also be the occasional special guest from the wider Barony.

More details and a program of proposed topics will be out next month. So please keep an eye out for posts on FaceBook and other social media outlets.

We look forward to seeing you there and at other Baronial Events and Activities

Note: Greenhorns look forward to seeing you all at the Valentine's Day Picnic on the 14th February

Valentine's Day Picnic

Politarchopolis, 14 February 2026

Other

The Greenhorn's invite the Barony and visitors from all other lands to join Politarchopolis for the St Valentine's Day Picnic - A celebration of Love, Friendship and Great Deeds inspired by the tales of King Arthur and his court.

Participate in and witness the Changeover of the Barony's martial Champions and the honouring of its martial forces.

Designed for attendees of all ages a range of competitions will be held throughout the day:

A Contest of Artisans - There are many tales of moments when King Arthur and his knights were struck by some fine object that delighted the senses with the skill of its making. Artisans of all ages and ranks are invited to present their finest recent works, and we advise all to visit this display of art and skill to feast their eyes and indicate the work they think is most worthy of renown.

A Rose Tourney for Armoured and Rapier Combatants - As kings and nobles did of old when they held round table tournaments in memory of King Arthur, we challenge combatants of all ranks to display their prowess using blunted weapons, so that courage and chivalry may be displayed without injury to any. This tourney shall be a rose tourney, so that entrants shall fight for the glory of others.

An Archery Hunt with War Arrows - Many have heard the tale of how King Arthur and his knights were once menaced by a furry foe with big, sharp, pointy teeth. We invite all to take up bow and arrow to strike down such creatures as they roam the park.

A Hobby Horse Joust for All - King Arthur and his knights often rode into battle, and so we shall hold in their honour a mighty joust! All ages are invited to participate in this joust, with hobby horses and boffer weapons, and the lists shall be divided into gentle riders and bold, so that everyone faces appropriate opponents.

A Noble Quest - No gathering in honour of King Arthur's round table would be complete without a quest! This quest is for those of all ages and abilities, and will be open throughout the event, for participants to complete at any time between opening and closing court.

What Should I bring?

Food to eat and share with others. This is a supplemented pot-luck event – light fruit, food and cordials will be available for attendees through the day to supplement what people bring.

Pageantry! Banners and sunshades to attract the eye, decorate the park and make known your history.

Games – Bocce? Chess? Quoits? Cards? Bring your favourite games to play with other people

Baronial Awards and Scrolls

The receiving of awards and scrolls is a wonderful occasion. To help celebrate this we would like to include details of these awards and photos of those who have received them.

With more in-person events happening around the Kingdom and within the Barony these should be celebrated.

Please let us know who within the Barony has received any awards at events either locally or outside of our boundaries and we will let all know of their achievements.

Image from the College of Scribes Website

The Scribal Arts are one of the many crafts that are practiced within the Kingdom and Society.

The time and dedication that is put into each and every scroll is often a wonder to behold. Help us to celebrate the works of these artists and those who receive these magnificent scrolls.

Send us pictures of scrolls that you have received and we will proudly display them for all to see.

Please send these to chronicler@politarchopolis.lochac.sca.org, include your name, what the scroll was for and when received. Also please include who the illuminator and calligrapher were. This way we can ensure all those whose work has gone into your scroll are recognized for their labours.

Have you ever wondered what the officers do?

Have you ever wanted to take on an office, but not sure how to go about it?

There are many ways that one can contribute to the running of a group, be it Kingdom, Barony, Shire, Canton or College.

Feel free to contact the office you are interested in to find out more about what is involved. You may feel that you are not ready or confident enough to take on an officer role, but you could consider becoming a Deputy (it is not always that a Deputy is expected to step up to the Officer role at the end of the incumbent's tenure) and learning more. Deputies also make the officer's role easier, as they can delegate tasks. You will see that many of the Kingdom Offices have Deputies that perform certain roles within the office, allowing others to concentrate on their roles and responsibilities.

Remember we are all here to have fun and make this game enjoyable.

Please reach out to your local Officers or Seneschal for more information.

The Barony of Politarchopolis

is a community group in Canberra and the surrounding region devoted to learning medieval skills and enjoying medieval pastimes.

We don't just read about history, we live it!

Fighting, feasting, costuming, crafting, music, dance... if it was done in pre-17th century Europe, we know someone interested in recreating it.

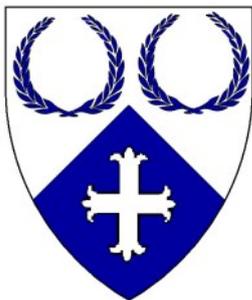

And not just in the ACT! We're part of a global organisation called the Society for Creative Anachronism (the SCA), and we're one of 42 local groups in the Australia/New Zealand chapter: the Kingdom of Lochac.
