From the Baron & Baroness

Greetings to the populace

Winter has come and it has been heartening to see the number of people from across the Barony at Sunday activities despite the weather. Rowan's series of hand sewing workshops and the many rabbit holes explored during Jadwiga's talk on Dowries and Women's inheritance have been some of the highlights of June.

This month we gather to arm ourselves against the cold with companionship, food and song at Winter in July. Our armoured combatants will commence training for the upcoming war season at War Training at various Ovals around the Barony. All the details and more are available in this month's Griffintayle and on the Politarchopolis website.

We bring exciting news that Bal d'Argent is now a Royal Event. Come dance with Your Kings! Worried you won't know any dances for the Bal? Dance classes are on every Sunday at the Hall. Can't make that? Join the regular dancing zoom meeting.

Are you continuously amazed at how clever, committed, giving and talented your fellow politarchopolans are? We want to hear about it. Send a missive to bandb@politarchopolis.lochac.sca.org, write us a letter or simply find us and pass your recommendation on.

In service to the Barony

Politarchopolis Officers

From the Seneschal

Greetings All,

Thank you to everyone who has offered to steward events – we have a heap on our calendar now, including a feast in July, a ball in August, a series of war training days and two demos. We're also working towards Fields of Gold at the end of November - more details about that event when available.

We are currently working through the necessary paperwork for Strathcorbie to become a hamlet of Politarchopolis. This is occurring as that shire does not have sufficient members at the moment and will otherwise fold.

Huge thank you's to our outgoing Reeve Cristoval, who has decided to take it easy and become treasurer for the SCA Ltd (a.k.a the OziBoD) instead, and thank you as well to Clara Bone Aventure for stepping up as our new Reeve.

On the subject of officer change-overs, thank you also to Ysabeau our outgoing Bookings Officer, who had in fact been doing it for ages and has now handed on to Robert Mortimer, with much instruction and encouragement.

Continuing on the officer theme, many thanks to Muirghein and Clara for their work as Chandlers and organising the store room. I'll start the process of filling this role shortly, but in the meantime please check with me if you have store room questions.

Lastly, we're still looking for a new constable - this position organises things to do with the sign-in sheets, lost property and generally making sure people are safe at events. If you'd like to be our next constable, please contact Gio (constable@politarchopolis.lochac.sca.org).

Crispin Sexi

Greetings all, the sharing of knowledge around the Cantons, households and Barony continues to inspire me, as I hope it inspires you.

Polit Scribal has moved to the first Saturday of the month. Contact Mistress Rowan, the Warden, if you wish to learn or polish your calligraphy and illumination skills, with a focus on supporting the Kingdom in the production of Award Scrolls.

War is also more fun with more people. Bring your friends!

Baronial Awards and Scrolls

The receiving of awards and scrolls is a wonderful occasion. To help celebrate this we would like to include details of these awards and photos of those who have received them.

With more in-person events happening around the Kingdom and within the Barony these should be celebrated.

Please let us know who within the Barony has received any awards at events either locally or outside of our boundaries and we will let all know of their achievements.

Image from the College of Scribes Website

The Scribal Arts are one of the many crafts that are practiced within the Kingdom and Society.

The time and dedication that is put into each and every scroll is often a wonder to behold. Help us to celebrate the works of these artists and those who receive these magnificent scrolls.

Send us pictures of scrolls that you have received and we will proudly display them for all to see.

Please send these to chronicler@politarchopolis.lochac.sca.org, include your name, what the scroll was for and when received. Also please include who the illuminator and calligrapher were. This way we can ensure all those whose work has gone into your scroll are recognized for their labours.

Have you ever wondered what the officers do?

Have you ever wanted to take on an office, but not sure how to go about it?

There are many ways that one can contribute to the running of a group, be it Kingdom, Barony, Shire, Canton or College.

Feel free to contact the office you are interested in to find out more about what is involved.

You may feel that you are not ready or confident enough to take on an officer role, but you could consider becoming a Deputy (it is not always that a Deputy is expected to step up to the Officer role at the end of the incumbent's tenure) and learning more. Deputies also make the officer's role easier, as they can delegate tasks. You will see that many of the Kingdom Offices have Deputies that perform certain roles within the office, allowing others to concentrate on their roles and responsibilities.

Remember we are all here to have fun and make this game enjoyable.

Please reach out to your local Officers or Seneschal for more information.

The Barony of Politarchopolis is a community group in Canberra and the surrounding region devoted to learning medieval skills and enjoying medieval pastimes. We don't just read about history, we live it!

Fighting, feasting, costuming, crafting, music, dance… if it was done in pre-17th century Europe, we know someone interested in recreating it.

And not just in the ACT! We're part of a global organisation called the Society for Creative Anachronism (the SCA), and we're one of 42 local groups in the Australia/New Zealand chapter: the Kingdom of Lochac.
