From the Baron & Baroness

Greetings to Politarchopolis and to our Cantons Okewaite and Torlyon,

This month we travelled to Torlyon for…whoa, wait scratch that. This month Torlyon travelled to Politarchopolis! The Torlyon Village Green – Spring event came to us and transformed our simple park at Ainslie Hall into a colourful springtime frolic with swords and snacks.

We offer our heartfelt gratitude to all who assisted with Queanbeyan Medieval Faire (QMF),. This was a huge event and it continues to grow each year. Whether you worked the whole event or manned a display for a few hours your presence was felt and you added to the wonderful atmosphere that was the Politarchopolis display area.

On that note we have St John's Fair coming up on 18 October. This is a lovely event that we have performed at for many years that has led to a great relationship between our shared communities and a free hall hire! As QMF demonstrated, volunteers are paramount to our presence being felt and having enough people to tag in and out of our static and fighting displays is important to making it a fun event for everyone. If you have time please come along to lend your support to a gentle event in a beautiful atmosphere.

Road trip to Marulan anyone? On 25 October we travel to our Canton of Okewaite for the Feast of the White Rose. Come along and enjoy a Tudor-inspired dinner! Please book early to allow the stewards time to adjust for numbers.

War training is done, but the dust will not settle 'til our troops return from Spring War. Our thanks to Lord Clifford for ensuring the Baronial forces are up to muster, we look forward to hearing their valorous tales and boastful claims on their safe return.

The Greenhorns are supporting each other in a range of projects to prepare for Fields of Gold (FoG) at the end of November (bookings now open!), who else has started preparing for FoG?

The letters of recommendation that we receive let us see members of our court through eyes other than our own – keep them coming – bandb@politarchopolis.lochac.sca.org.

We are looking forward to seeing friends and meeting new folks.

From the B&Bs Chamberlain

Greetings from your friendly neighborhood Baronial Chamberlain!

I feel that I should introduce myself, to those who don't know me, and tell you a little bit about me and what I do as Chamberlain.

As to the Me aspect, I originate from the now Barony of St Florian's some mumblemumblenotevenashireyetmumble years ago. I've been in Politarchopolis for just over 20-years. I am a Laurel specializing in cheese-making, with significant interest (and some skill) in beadwork, beading, and late 15C garb (Italian and English). I've lost count of the number of St Valentine's Day events I have run for the Barony, but I've run small picnics to huge multi-day royal events (not just Valentines!). Even one FoG! I've been an officer in a number of roles, including currently as Deputy Herald for Awards. And I am a proud member of the household Red Griffin.

I have also previously been a member of Baronial Households. Which is where this Chamberlain business comes in! My role is to help Llewelyn and Rosa navigate stuff™ and to help the populous with navigating "The B&B"! Which is very nonspecific I grant you, but it is doing what needs to be done.

For Rosa and Llewelyn, I can be the person organizing attendants for an event, be a trusted runner with messages from hither to tither, consulted about court, a sounding board for ideas, an advisor, co-planner for event timeframes, from time-to-time call for largess, and always be a friend.

For you the populous, I can be the person you come to if you're not sure you should 'bother' the B&B, I can be the keeper/finder of knowledge if they are attending or hosting an event, I can be the person you tell that XX is being awesome and should get an award but I suck at email/comms and just telling you is easier, and ultimately I am here to help you engage with the B&B.

So if you need an ear (ewwww) I am happy to listen and help you out as much as I can. I am on FaceBother, my email is below, and you can always chat to me whenever you see me.

Yours in Service to the B&B,

The Honorable Mistress Alexandra Hartshorne

From the Seneschal

Greetings All,

Thank you to everyone who helped out at our demo for Queanbeyan Medieval Fair. Setup and then two whole days of talking to interested punters is a lot of work, and I'm looking forward to any new members who might come along and join our game.

Our third demo for the year will be at St Johns Fair this month. Out of that we get a free hall hire for next year, so it is very much worth our time. Please come along and help out!

We're in need of a whole swag of officers at the moment. If you've been wondering what more you can do to help your barony, then please come talk to me and offer up your services. Officer positions are for 2 years, overseeing a portion of our game and taking an active part in baronial council meetings. And writing quarterly reports on all the great things that have been happening.

- Webwright (The Polit website)
- Children's Officer (Kids activities)

I'll put out messages all over the place, but please do consider volunteering yourself or a friend to help keep Politarchopolis running smoothly.

Politarchopolis Officers

Greeting from your Deputy Herald for Awards!

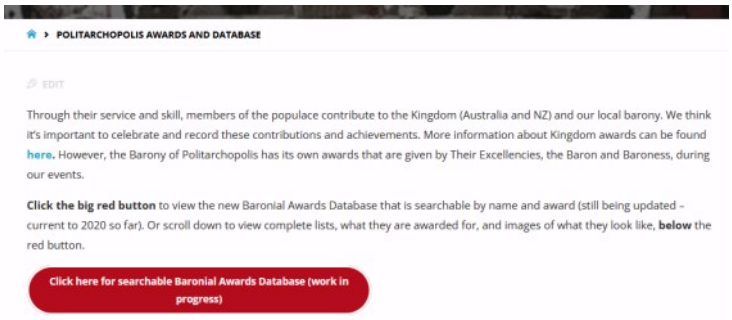

Since taking on this role in January I have been working on combining our 4 (yes, 4) award recording mechanisms down into a more sustainable number. Like 2 for example.
What the end result will be is a single spot via our website to access a solution that leans on the Canon Lore database, but is separate to that as a specific Baronial Awards Database. This database has been listed as a button on our websites award page for sometime waiting for all this to happen.

Alongside this will be a 'spreadsheet' version that is used by our lovely B&B for information and recommendation analysis and management. This version will not be public, and is a safety backup if things go truly wrong in some horrendous way as well.
I am now at the point that all the data has been syncronised across our current systems. And as such am preparing to firstly remove the long long long list of awardees off the website page. This means that the data that is on the website page has been fully captured in the database and is now redundant in its current form. This removal will occur along with a slight remodel to the page to make it a little more information friendly.

My plan is to have the data removed and the website remodeled by the end of October. So I ask that you all start becoming familiar with using the Baronial Awards Database.

With that in mind, can you all please start by checking your own records are accurate and complete. If they aren't complete or something needs updating, please let me know! You can also check on other peoples and help with corrections to their records. All the while learning to use the database too (I know, cunning right?).

You can find the Baronial Awards Database HERE.

Recap

1. The Awards page will be updated by end of October.
2. Please go check your record via the Big Red Button and request any corrections asap.

At the moment corrections/issues can come to me at this email address:
deputyheraldPOLIT@gmail.com
A more permanent form for both corrections and recommendations will be rolled out with the remodel.

Yours in Service,
Alexandra Hartshorne, OL.

Feast of the White Rose

Okewaite, 25 October

Feast

In 1487, a young Yorkist was crowned King of England in Dublin, challenging the new Tudor dynasty. The Tudors said he was an imposter, Lambert Simnel. Others say that he was "prince in the tower" Edward V, who briefly reigned before Richard III took the crown.

The Feast of the White Rose has a plausible feast of that time, based on surviving recipes.

In this the Modern Middle Ages, it will be a feast hosted by the Baron and Baroness of Politarchopolis, their first visit as B&B to their canton of Okewaite. Please join them for an evening of good fare and medieval pursuits.

Baronial Awards and Scrolls

The receiving of awards and scrolls is a wonderful occasion. To help celebrate this we would like to include details of these awards and photos of those who have received them.

With more in-person events happening around the Kingdom and within the Barony these should be celebrated.

Please let us know who within the Barony has received any awards at events either locally or outside of our boundaries and we will let all know of their achievements.

Image from the College of Scribes Website

The Scribal Arts are one of the many crafts that are practiced within the Kingdom and Society.

The time and dedication that is put into each and every scroll is often a wonder to behold. Help us to celebrate the works of these artists and those who receive these magnificent scrolls.

Send us pictures of scrolls that you have received and we will proudly display them for all to see.

Please send these to chronicler@politarchopolis.lochac.sca.org, include your name, what the scroll was for and when received. Also please include who the illuminator and calligrapher were. This way we can ensure all those whose work has gone into your scroll are recognized for their labours.

Baronial Hall Fees

Hi all, if you attend the Polit hall days at Ainslie, it's time to pay fees for the first quarter or the year, or for the full year if paying yearly.

Make your life and my life easier by paying for the rest of the year now!

The daily payment is $6 to help cover our hall costs. If you come on Tuesdays and Sundays, you need to pay each time, or pay the quarterly fee.
If you're not an SCA member, there is an extra $10 adults or $5 kids each visit which is an insurance charge.

Have you ever wondered what the officers do?

Have you ever wanted to take on an office, but not sure how to go about it?

There are many ways that one can contribute to the running of a group, be it Kingdom, Barony, Shire, Canton or College.

Feel free to contact the office you are interested in to find out more about what is involved.

You may feel that you are not ready or confident enough to take on an officer role, but you could consider becoming a Deputy (it is not always that a Deputy is expected to step up to the Officer role at the end of the incumbent's tenure) and learning more. Deputies also make the officer's role easier, as they can delegate tasks. You will see that many of the Kingdom Offices have Deputies that perform certain roles within the office, allowing others to concentrate on their roles and responsibilities.

Remember we are all here to have fun and make this game enjoyable.

The Barony of Politarchopolis is a community group in Canberra and the surrounding region devoted to learning medieval skills and enjoying medieval pastimes. We don't just read about history, we live it!

Fighting, feasting, costuming, crafting, music, dance… if it was done in pre-17th century Europe, we know someone interested in recreating it.

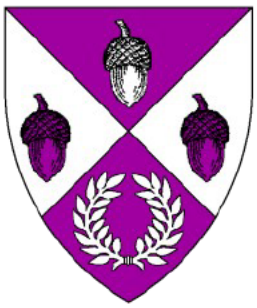

And not just in the ACT! We're part of a global organisation called the Society for Creative Anachronism (the SCA), and we're one of 42 local groups in the Australia/New Zealand chapter: the Kingdom of Lochac.
