From the Baron & Baroness

Greetings to Politarchopolis, our Cantons Okewaite and Torlyon and our Hamlet of Strathcorbie.

We ring in June to the huzzahs of the Coronation of King Aonghus mac Griogair mhic Raghnaill and Queen Ginevra Lucia di Namoraza, may they have a healthy and happy reign.

With Tarago behind us and Geek Markets/Queanbeyan Medieval Fair/St John's Fete to come we've been thinking about 'what attracts people to the SCA', 'what makes a good demonstration', and 'how do we support new members to learn their way around'?

The Barony has things in place to help people settle in, the hospitaller as a point of contact, loaner garb and feasting gear, regular meeting times and plenty of friendly people eager to answer questions. Greenhorns Hangouts have been a great new string to the Barony's Welcome Wagon.

We've heard suggestions around running feasts/events soon after demonstrations and the Barony of Ildhafn has kindly shared some of their resources for newcomers that we're keen to adopt for Politarchopolis. What have you seen work in other locations? What is the one thing you wish someone would do/have done when you started in the SCA?

If you've got ideas come and talk to us about them or send us a message. And while you're doing that don't be shy about telling us if somebody is doing something that deserves recognition – bandb@politarchopolis.lochac.sca.org.

June is a bit of a wayfaring month for us with Llewellyn off to Great Northern War, an overnight weekend in Okewaite for the Dirty (A&S) weekend and then it's to Ynys Fawr for the Baronial Changeover. Looking forward to seeing people at various events.

Politarchopolis Officers

From the Seneschal

We have 199 paid up members in central Polit, plus 10 in Torlyon and 35 in Okewaite. (Hamlet of Strathcorbie numbers are included in the Polit figure.) This is great - the largest number of members the barony has ever had!

We've got a flurry of events being planned - thank you to all the different stewards for stepping up to work wonders. If you would like to help with some of these events, please reach out to the stewards and offer your help.

My stint as baronial seneschal will come to an end in July, as will a handful of other officers. Please keep an eye out and apply as these roles become available. Right now we're advertising for a new Chronicler, Hospitaller and Chandler. Come talk to their excellencies and myself if you would like to help with the running of our group.

Crispin Sexi
Seneschal of Politarchopolis

Arts & Sciences Musings

Greetings all, I am a little overwhelmed in a good way by how many of the populace are sharing knowledge around the Barony and Cantons, both formally presenting classes and Rabbit Holes and online, and informally between friends and any turning up at the Hall or Quercus Field. It is so very pleasing to see.

There are many classes coming up, please see the Calendar below.

The Okewaite A&S Weekend looks like it will be a great opportunity to learn many dirty and messy skills.

All Offices should have a Deputy, and it's a low pressure way to find out about the expectations and potential any office can offer. While my warrant ends in July, a Deputy does not need to step up, and can continue working with the new officer. I'm open to chat or email if being A&S Deputy could interest you, or indeed, if you wish to be the next A&S Officer for the Barony. You don't need to live in the central Barony, being easily contactable and able to report to the Seneschal and Baronial Council and quarterly to the Kingdom A&S Minister is the basic requirement.

From the Griffintayle Editor

Unto All,

As we come to a point where a new Editor is chosen, I will bid my farewell from this office with this last edition of Griffintayle, from me at least.

I have found it to be a fun and enjoyable four and a half years of producing what I hope has been an informative and sometimes interesting newsletter for the populace to receive and read.

It has definitely grown from the first edition I edited which I think was around 3-4 pages long, to what now seems to be more like 'war and peace'. I wish I could have included more from the barony, but there seems to be an abundance of events and activities that take up so much space.

I look forward with excitement to see what we will be reading in Griffintayle's to come.

YIS till I see another office I feel like taking on.

Gio

Greenhorn Hangouts

Hi, are you young and wanting to know more about the SCA and join in all the wonderous activities.

Well look forward to new and fun activities at the Civic Library in Juney AS 61 (2026) Wednesday 3rd and 17th of June 5.45pm - 7.45pm look out for FB notifications

The Barony of Politarchopolis is looking for all those under the age of 35 to come along to meet others and learn more about the Society and what it has to offer in a comfortable, social and engaging environment.

Each session will have activities where you will be able to learn about a variety of topics from garb, food, entertainment and other fun past-times. Also you will be able to relax and socialise with others while working on any little or large projects you may be doing. There may also be the occasional special guest from the wider Barony.

More details and a program of proposed topics will be out next month. So please keep an eye out for posts on FaceBook and other social media outlets.

We look forward to seeing you there and at other Baronial Events and Activities

A Genteel Day at the Butts

https://politarchopolis.lochac.sca.org/

Politarchopolis, 12 September

Tournament

Join the Barony of Politarchopolis for a leisure day at the archery range. Expect many fancy finger foods, much lounging and music, and a laid-back IKAC.

This event aims to support archers using adaptations and accommodations. We will have space on and near the shooting line for mobility and balance aids, assistants to collect arrows, ample seating, and time to rest between ends. There is also no requirement to shoot all 12 rounds of the IKAC. If there is anything else we can do to assist, please contact the event steward.

Too busy socialising to pick up your bow? Consider contributing your coin to the Archer Auction, and buy a champion to hit the butts on your behalf.
(All money raised will go to Okewaite, to assist site improvements)

A very FOGgy Coronation

https://politarchopolis.lochac.sca.org

Politarchopolis, 13-15 November

Coronation

Fields of Gold (FoG) is a fully catered camping event, running from Friday night to Sunday afternoon.

FoG traditionally includes multiple tournaments across all the genres available to us (martial and non-martial). Participants are encouraged to enter as many fields as possible, and the person who accrues the most points is awarded the prize of the Champs d'Or.

For FoG XIV, we would be honoured to host the final court of King Aonghus mac Griogair mhic Raghnaill and Queen Ginevra Lucia di Namoraza and the investiture and first courts of their Heirs. Our usual sumptuous feast would reach dizzying heights of delectation. Our artisans, musicians and players would be inspired to produce fresh and exciting creations.

Our combatants would be thrilled by the chance to prove themselves before Lochac royalty.

Baronial Awards and Scrolls

The receiving of awards and scrolls is a wonderful occasion. To help celebrate this we would like to include details of these awards and photos of those who have received them.

With more in-person events happening around the Kingdom and within the Barony these should be celebrated.

Please let us know who within the Barony has received any awards at events either locally or outside of our boundaries and we will let all know of their achievements.

Image from the College of Scribes Website

The Scribal Arts are one of the many crafts that are practiced within the Kingdom and Society.

The time and dedication that is put into each and every scroll is often a wonder to behold. Help us to celebrate the works of these artists and those who receive these magnificent scrolls.

Send us pictures of scrolls that you have received and we will proudly display them for all to see.

Please send these to chronicler@politarchopolis.lochac.sca.org, include your name, what the scroll was for and when received. Also please include who the illuminator and calligrapher were. This way we can ensure all those whose work has gone into your scroll are recognized for their labours.

Our In-person meetings are full of surprises but luckily no assassinations. Well not physically anyway!

Have you ever wondered what the officers do?

Have you ever wanted to take on an office, but not sure how to go about it?

There are many ways that one can contribute to the running of a group, be it Kingdom, Barony, Shire, Canton or College.
Feel free to contact the office you are interested in to find out more about what is involved. You may feel that you are not ready or confident enough to take on an officer role, but you could consider becoming a Deputy (it is not always that a Deputy is expected to step up to the Officer role at the end of the incumbent's tenure) and learning more. Deputies also make the officer's role easier, as they can delegate tasks. You will see that many of the Kingdom Offices have Deputies that perform certain roles within the office, allowing others to concentrate on their roles and responsibilities.

Remember we are all here to have fun and make this game enjoyable.

The Barony of Politarchopolis is a community group in Canberra and the surrounding region devoted to learning medieval skills and enjoying medieval pastimes. We don't just read about history, we live it!

Fighting, feasting, costuming, crafting, music, dance… if it was done in pre-17th century Europe, we know someone interested in recreating it.

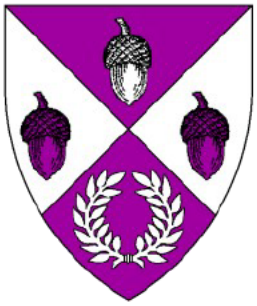

And not just in the ACT! We're part of a global organisation called the Society for Creative Anachronism (the SCA), and we're one of 36 local groups in the Australia/New Zealand chapter: the Kingdom of Lochac.
